

UT Martin Export Control Checklist and Country List

Use this checklist to assist in determining whether or not Export Control regulations apply to your project.

Does this proposal:	YES	NO
Originate in the high-risk areas of Engineering, Physics, Chemistry, Space sciences, Computer Sciences, Microbiology?
Involve research with aircraft, military training equipment, protective personnel equipment, plasma technology, spacecraft systems and equipment, toxins, nuclear design , or other technologies with substantial military application? (ITAR)
Involve materials processing, electronics, computers and source code for encrypted software, telecommunications and information security, lasers and sensors, chemicals, and microorganisms? (EAR)
Contain words like “development” or “fabrication”?
Involve collaboration with foreign nationals from or travel to an embargoed or high risk country? (See country lists provided at the following links: http://www.treas.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/programs/ and http://pmdtcc.state.gov/embargoed_countries/index.html)
Does this contract include:
Restrictions on foreign national participation?
Restriction on publication of results?
Sponsor pre-approval rights over publication?
Reference to proprietary information?
Indications from the sponsor that export controlled information will be furnished for use in the research?

If you answered YES to any of the questions above, please contact the Executive Director of the Office of Research, Outreach, and Economic Development for an export control review of the project.